RECORDED BOOKS COLLECTION

Fall 2007

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS STANDARD 1

Students will read, write, listen, and speak for information and understanding. As listeners and readers, students will collect data, facts, and ideas, discover relationships, concepts, and generalizations; and use knowledge generated from oral, written, and electronically produced texts. As speakers and writers, they will use oral and written language to acquire, interpret, apply, and transmit information.

Catalog Number: CD1

Title: Adventures of Huckleberry Finn CD

Author: Twain, Mark

Imprint: Audio Partners 1999

Physical Description: 680 mins col 1, 7 Cassettes

Summary: This superb reading by Patrick Fraley is rich in the color and the adventurous frontier spirit of the Mississippi River. It captures the world and people that Mark Twain knew and loved. Author and actor together provide storytelling genius, balancing youthful escapades against an important social message.

Audience: High School, Junior High

Catalog Number: CD2

Title: Great Gatsby CD

Author: Fitzgerald, F. Scott

Edition: Complete and Unabridged

Imprint: Audio Partners 2002

Physical Description: 150 mins col 1

Summary: A true classic of American literature, The Great Gatsby celebrates a "heightened sensibility to the promises of life," an American capacity for hope that remains unsullied even by the falsity of what it pursues. Fitzgerald's clean, elegant style evokes to perfection the glitter and charm of the Jazz Age, as well as the falseness of its values.

Audience: High School, Junior High

Catalog Number: CD3

Title: Glass Menagerie CD

Author: Williams, Tennessee

Imprint: Camden Audio 1945

Physical Description: 180 mins col 1

General Note: Also included on this audio are priceless recordings of Tennessee Williams bringing his own interpretations to the wistful opening monologue and the tragic ending, as well as to his own brilliantly charming poetry and his uproariously wicked short story, The Yellow Bird.

Summary: In this touching story, we meet the embattled Wingfield family: Amanda faded southern belle, abandoned wife, dominating mother, who hopes to match her daughter with an eligible "gentleman caller;" Laura lame and painfully shy, evades her mother's schemes and reality by retreating to a world of make-believe; Tom sole support of the family, eventually leaves home to become a writer but is forever haunted by the memory of Laura.

Title: Holes CD

Author: Sachar, Louis

Imprint: Recorded Books 1998

Physical Description: 4.5 hrs. 4 CDs

General Note: We also have Holes also available in a Literature Box.

Summary: Stanley Yelnats isn't so surprised when a miscarriage of justice sends him to a juvenile detention center. He is told that the hard labor he must perform, digging 5-foot holes in the dried up soil where Green lake once sat is meant to build character. But it soon becomes clear to Stanley that the warden is really using the boys to search for something very valuable. The story of the hidden treasure along with the warden, Stanley's friend Zero, and the curse on the Yelnats family are all part of a compelling puzzle that has taken generations to unravel.
